	Issued by : Exe. Director	SIMS Notice No 21 of 2022	Date:21.03.2022

The residential, regimental and disciplined training cultivates good manner, obedient and time tested citizen of a nation. The objective of this institute was never nor is or shall remain to punish any of its student in term of monetary , physically or mentally. It is an universal truth that all course participants cannot be liked.

The institute has system of informing its course participants on training activities, or events. It is even surprise that many of Pre Sea GP Rating course student did not turn up for the 1st Unit test arranged by the institute in the month of February 2022 to assess them on the syllabus covered on all subject.

Many of cadets reported for physical classes {as per orders in force}, went their home to attend their University examination from home. The institute issued direction of reporting. Many of cadets did not turn up in time. It shows that these prospective officers needs to educate on system procedure and value of the orders as and when issued by the administration at present and also in future onboard as cadet to Master.

We have viewed the matter serious understand these student are not cooperating in validation of training and its process. Students did not attend Unit test are fined as per Para of SIMS Notice No 09 of 2022 dated 10.02.2022. The fine list is enclosed to this order as annex 1. Fine list of cadet is enclosed as Annex 2 to this order.

Account department to log the same and update the books. Fine can be paid to the account department or can request to accommodate/settle in Security deposit. Any student, cadet or GP rating if no security submit till now to submit to accountant and obtain receipt of the same by 31.03.2022 positively.
